

BURNABY MOUNTAIN LADIES GOLF CLUB

CONSTITUTION (1972) Revised 2023

- NAME: The Club shall be known as Burnaby Mountain Ladies Golf Club (BMLGC). The club shall mean a ladies group formed within the patrons of the Burnaby Mountain Golf Course, and has no connection with the Municipality of Burnaby, and there will be no special privileges given by the staff of the golf course to the club. At no time should any member of the club request special privileges in the name of the club.
- OBJECTIVES: To bring together women who play golf at Burnaby Mountain Golf Course for the following reasons:
- a. To obtain a social friendship
 - b. To participate in club run tournaments and functions
 - c. To format one's handicap
 - d. To participate in inter-club events
 - e. To obtain BCGA Women's membership
- MEMBERSHIP: All females shall be eligible for membership in the club in the manner set out in the By-Laws.
- OFFICERS: Officers of the Club shall be as follows:
- Captain, Vice-Captain, Secretary and Treasurer
 - Term of office is two years, and an individual shall not exceed two consecutive terms in any one position.
 - The replacement of Officers should be staggered to provide continuity on the Executive from term to term. The term for the Secretary will come up for replacement in even years and for Treasurer in odd years.
- EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE The Executive Committee shall consist of the Officers and additional members as called for in the By-Laws.
- AMENDMENTS and ADDITIONS The constitution may be added to, amended or altered by the membership at a regular business meeting, and must receive a $\frac{3}{4}$ majority vote of those present to be effective. The addition, amendment or alteration must be submitted in writing to the Captain prior to the meeting.